8. late checkout

/leɪt ˈtʃɛkaʊt/ noun

An arrangement allowing a guest to leave after the standard checkout time.

"I can arrange a late checkout until 2 PM at no additional charge."

Tagalog: huli na pag-check out

Section 2 — Phrases & Patterns

Welcome to [Hotel Name], how may I assist you?

Standard greeting.

"Welcome to The Grand Meridian. How may I assist you today?"

I sincerely apologise for the inconvenience.

Acknowledge a complaint.

"I sincerely apologise for the inconvenience with your room's air conditioning."

I'll have that resolved for you right away.

Commit to action.

"I'll have that resolved for you right away — our maintenance team will be there within fifteen minutes."

On Duty English

As a gesture of goodwill...

Offer compensation.

"As a gesture of goodwill, I'd like to offer you a complimentary dinner for two."

Section 3 — Scenario Practice

Read the dialogue aloud. Circle any words you found difficult to pronounce.

Front Desk Staff: Good evening, welcome to The Grand Meridian. How may I assist you?

Guest: Hi, I have a reservation. The name is Santos.

Front Desk Staff: Of course, Mr. Santos. I have your reservation here — a deluxe room for two nights. May I see your ID and the card used for booking?

Guest: Here you go. Actually, I wanted to mention — the room I had last time had a noise issue from the street.

Front Desk Staff: I sincerely apologise for that inconvenience. I've assigned you a room on the 8th floor facing the courtyard — it's much quieter. And as a gesture of goodwill, complimentary breakfast is included for both mornings.

Guest: That's very kind, thank you.

Front Desk Staff: My pleasure. Here is your key card. The lift is to your right, and our amenities — pool and gym — are on the 3rd floor. Enjoy your stay.

Section 4 — Self-Evaluation

After completing the exercises, tick each item you feel confident about:

I can greet a guest and complete a check-in professionally.

I can acknowledge a complaint and apologise sincerely in English.

I can offer a resolution and a goodwill gesture using the right vocabulary.

I can explain hotel amenities clearly.
